

Everyday journeys offer opportunities for adventure, fun and discovery. Even a race to the neighbourhood park can transform the ordinary into the extraordinary.

Referring to the subdivision and urban development of Point Cook, the artworks seek to transform everyday experiences into childhood adventures.

During our conversations with students at the Carranballac P-9 College, the students often expressed the desire for parks, playgrounds and an area that offered adventure and fun.